

Emmanuel Cotessat, Associé/Partner, EmmanuelCotessat Sté d'Avocats

Emmanuel is a French indirect taxes lawyer. After 10 years in Big Four firms he established his own tax law practice in 2000. Emmanuel's firm focuses on three main areas: Advising large multinational firms on supply chain and IT, VAT & customs related issues, outsourcing of indirect tax compliance in the EU and litigation. His clients are mainly from the pharmaceutical, aeronautics, energy and engineering sectors. Emmanuel is currently Vice-Chairman of the International VAT Association and deputy representative of the IVA to the European Commission's VAT Expert Group. He is a member of the VAT Committee of the French Tax Lawyers Association, of the French VAT Practitioners Association, of the French Association of Fiscal Representatives, and represent the IVA at Community Relay of the e-invoicing French government project.